Dress Code

We are often asked, “Why does dress code matter?”

Can you see a difference between these two groups of students photographed on the right?

We use a dress code because having your child in the appropriate attire, with hair removed from the face, provides the teacher with the ability to see body placement, brings the class together as a group, is less distracting, and helps the students focus on instruction.

Foundational Rules

- No jewelry or large tutus allowed
- Have hair secured and away from the face in a bun, ponytail, or French braid.

Before

After

To view our complete dress code, by class, visit our website: www.stagedoordancearts.com/dress-code.

For your convenience, SDDA stocks a variety of items in the office.

- Tights for all classes
- Ballet shoes for all classes
- Tap shoes for Tippy Toes through K-2
- Jazz shoes in black and tan
- Youth leotards and dance dresses in black and pink (dress-code approved)
- Gently-used consignment shoes (ballet, tap and even some jazz)

For items we don't carry, we recommend Kick's Activewear in downtown Conway or Footlights in Little Rock.
